girl's basketball team

the big surprise of the year was the girl's junior varsity basketball team. this team composed of captain donna bithoney, patti haley, edwina anderson, carla outerbridge, pam jones, cheryl lightfoot, dana martins, and sandra vass, fought its way to a third place finish in the suburban league. high scorer was freshman cheryl lightfoot and the top rebounders were pam jones and carla outerbridge. these girls worked hard and should be proud of their finish. hope they do as good, even better next year.

the varsity basketball team, however, did not live up to expectations. big gun audrey cabral continued to break school records, captain mary lee babjtis pulled more than her weight in points and rebounds, laverne mosely continued her great all-around game, kathy conrad pulled in double the number of rebounds and set more rebounding records, sophomore yani batteau was a pleasant surprise to the team, carol campbell and sue wyman and gerry small tried their best when needed, but it only amounted to 3 wins and 7 losses. "sometimes you win, sometimes you lose" sings carol king. maybe next year.

thanks go to mary jo fresolo, carolyn de leo, ann marie chaves, the managers and to the coaches miss linda di berto and miss julie campbell.

carol campbell

football 71

this year's football team was led by its three co-captains: pete carbone, jon martin, and rhodes williams. although the team did not do too well throughout the season, as they were faced with several losses, they ended their season with a spectacular win over rindge on thanksgiving day, 13–6.

the men who helped the most were the coaches, headed by jim coady, his able staff was made up of joe colanino, tom monroe, bill foster, and paul sullivan.

co-captains pete carbone, jon martin, rocky williams kept the team closely knit together all season. the seniors played a big and very important role. lenny clarke, jack tegan, carl borges, john giacchetto, kevin johnson, frank ruscito, michael trifone, gerard hickey, thomas bonacci, peter saras, and steve giacoppo contributed more than their share to the season. the juniors and sophomores came through for the team and helped greatly.

anonymous

basketball 71-72

because this year's basketball team was a very young and inexperienced one with only three returning lettermen, it had an unsuccessful season. but, they did not give up, however, and should be praised for never losing their spirit. the senior effort came from joey leva, captain, robert mahoney, and mike nicoloro. the team has a lot of promising juniors and sophomores that will make the 72-73 team contenders for the suburban league. the seniors wish the team "good luck" in the upcoming year.

girl's swim team

this year the team's league record wasn't that good, 1 win — 4 losses — 1 tie, but what this team lacked in wins it made up in soul. co-captains nancy levine and dale delaney led the team with 60 1/4 points and 34 1/2 points respectively. nancy hines and liz davenport swam the 100 yard breaststroke event, and with susan keohane were the team's divers. freshmen pauline winn, michell ferdinand, and sophomore starr thorne, were pleasant surprises in the freestyle events. diane remeika and charlene francia continued their fine performances in the 25 yard freestyle, and the relay events. lynne saya and sue wyman swam the backstroke and meg doran, dana martins, leslie darling, kathy conrad, and versatile cindy knotts helped out when needed. carolyn "taffy" turk and carol campbell were the loyal managers.

next year watch out for this team because they will bounce back. they are overdue for a winning season.

indoor track team

this year's cantab track team didn't have the season that coach donald murphy figured on having but it did have an interesting one. surprising performances from the underclassmen that were of this year's squad was one good change from last year. also, the performance of junior captain don ferguson, tony pini, steve kelly, jim kelleher, and jim o'connell proved to be a plus in the rebuilding program of the team. coach murphy strongly believes that the backbone of a track team should be its seniors: carl jones, frank ruscito, and kenny isaacs. they contributed greatly in the team's only win against malden catholic. this win, by the way, snapped a long and personal losing streak that the cantabs formally had.

in conclusion, i want to say that even though this year's record was a losing one, the desire for winning was finally revitalized and next year should be a very promising season for cantab track.

kenny isaacs

baseball

coach: charles killilea

co-captains: robert boswell, harry ohanesian returning lettermen pitchers: robert boswell, tony pini, george brazil infielders; harry ohanesian, fred bass, jack bresnahan mike vitagliano
outfielders; dana de furia catchers; frank vitagliano outlook for 1972: the c.h.l.s. baseball team for the first time since 1963 has to be considered a contender for the suburban league title. the team that coach killilea finished the season with, which won the three out of the last four ball games, returns intact.

harry ohanesian

boy's swim team

the 1971—72 swim team enjoyed its finest season in three years—ending up with a 7 win 4 loss record.

the members of the team include wells grogan, tom currier, kirk de luca, victor plosinski, mark zbinden, doug grogan, pat warren, joe kelly, leo kelly, dan turner, peter paulis, john wylie, and eric miller. although these are not the only members of the swim team, these people were the most beneficial and valuable to the success that the team has had.

while the power of the team was mostly in the seniors, the underclassmen helped us with the other strokes we needed. last year, because of the lack of support of the underclassemen, we had a fairly unsuccessful season.

wells grogan swam the 200 & 400 yd. freestyle events for the team. wells helped a great deal by winning these events when we needed it the most.

tom currier, a great breast-stroker, was another valuable asset to the team. tom swam the 200 yd. medley relay and the 100 yd. breast stroke events.

kirk de luca gave the team a lift with his strong freestyle. kirk swam the 200 yd. medley relay and the 400 yd. freestyle relays.

victor plosinski swan the 400 yd. freestyle for the team, although this was victor's first year on the team. he performed excellently and helped the team greatly.

many others helped the team a great deal and are acknowledged for their help. all in all, the swim team has had a very good year and hopes that all future teams are just as successful.

steve koulalis 72

soccer 71-72

the cantabridgian's soccer team had caught many teams by surprise in the highly competitive suburban league. after losing several earlier games in regulation and overtime play by a few goals, they bounced back to defeat rindge 2—0 in the most thrilling game of the season. while the team was earning praise around the league as being highly competitive, dana de furia was elected to the all-star team.

the team will be losing some of its key players: bill fay, craig halajain, david smith, robert marfione, bob maggio, joe de vito, and tasos georgancopoulos, but it will be a team to watch for in the upcoming year with many of its members returning.

captain
dana de furia

hockey 71-72

this year's hockey team did not do too well in league competition, but better things are on the way. with a young squad, the team is currently 5-10-1 in league play. if the breaks had gone the other way, they could have easily have turned that record around. seniors on the team dennis maragiolio (captain), dana de furia, charlie murphy, david smith, and craig halajian wish the best of luck to the rest of the team in coming years. knowing that players like eddie lange, david lange, matt browne, mark crusco, ronnie perry (a freshman) and mike fosher and others are returning next year. the team looks for an improved record in the 72-73 season.

david conlon

mr. christopher dinsmore

the science dept. doesn't seem the same anymore without mr. dinsmore around, that spirit of effervescence, humaneness, and good humor which is only his is missing from our halls, and though we know that this is only a temporary condition, we can't help but hope that mr. dinsmore's absence will end as soon as possible.

when we think back to before his illness, we remember his intelligence, his gentleness and compassion. we remember only the good times because that is all there was. for one-in-a-million teachers like him, it's an injustice for him to be away more than a few days.

a 50 year association with the cambridge school system ends in june. mr. duffy is retiring.

one of our alumni, from the class of 1922, editor of the yearbook, mr. duffy spent many years in the physical education dept., providing guidance and leadership to the thousands of students who passed through his hands. in the later years of his career, he was a member of the guidance dept. his special joy was working with freshmen, because he felt that they were in one of the most important years of their lives, and he was more than willing to give them the extra help they so greatly needed.

in honor of his years of giving, leading, sharing, and caring, the class of 1972 wishes mr. bernard duffy good health, good times, prosperity, and long life in his well-deserved retirement years.

ooh there yummy!

got a match, jimmy?

oh, please don't make her cry!

i'll have to start carrying a wallet.

who called me a little cutie???

now don't they make a nice couple?

should i believe them? . . . they said it was coffee.

ok, i'm ready

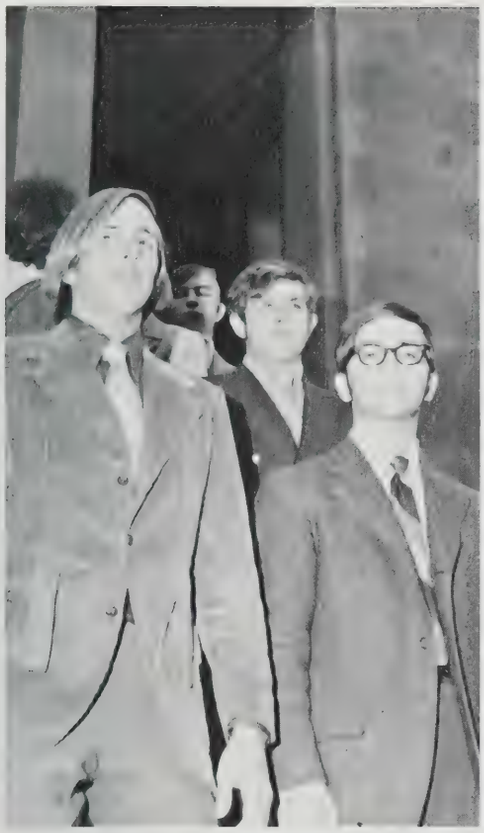
take our picture . . .

don't take my picture



we've reached a certain height . . .!!

we do see eye to eye and this is what we learned in biology today . . .

what do you think of this page??

do you like my arm rest??

peek-a-boo

this class is so interesting . . .

so is this one . . .

viva la french class . . .!!

viva what . . .??

we all came back . . .

would you repeat that in english, please . . .??

do all intellects smoke pipes . . .??

just one more bite . . .!!

he does chew his food sorta funny, doesn't he . . .??

after this we'll need a cup of coffee

i think we should sit with the women hey fellas, over here . . .!!

i think they should sit over here with us then he said . . .

down the hatch . . .!!

now let's see . . . what shall i have for desert . . .??

oh yeah . . .??

ohh!!! that was a goody . . .!!

now it's fit to be eaten . . .

and it was this big . . . really it was . . .!!

i knew i would find it eventually . . .!!

hey you, what did you find . . .??

privacy

oh no, my pants . . .!!

this isn't a go-to-your-locker-period . . .??

where are we all walking to . . .??

i think we make a pretty good picture . . .!!

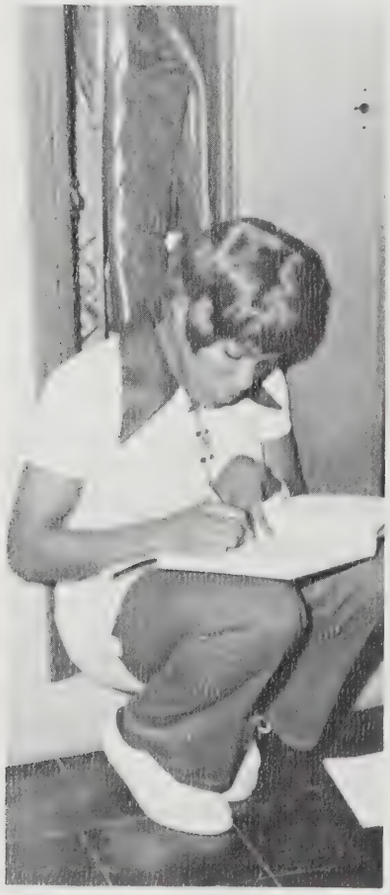
i don't think they make such a good picture . . .

do you think people will talk, bob . . .??

bob's headband really gets to me . . .

i'll meet you at the lunchroom, my tummy's growling . . .

what's in the bag . . .??



getting right down to it

if they could only see me now hey this book is pretty good . . .

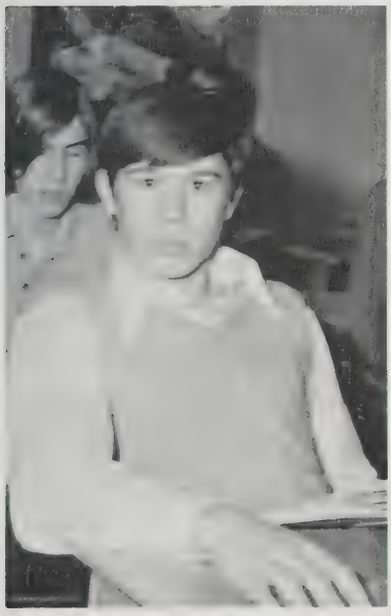
man! this will make a good picture boy . . . did you hear the one about . . .??

i don't mess around!!

let's see . . . who should i go out with tonight . . .??

they call me the claw . . .

what's a guy do with 40 credits . . .??



hey, they can't teach that stuff in school what do you mean it's not an open book test . . .??

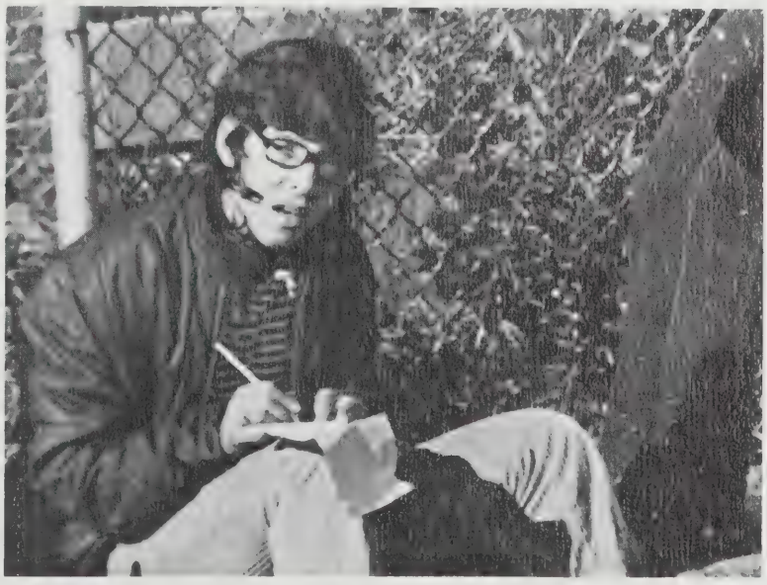
now's the time for a little snoze

vantage point

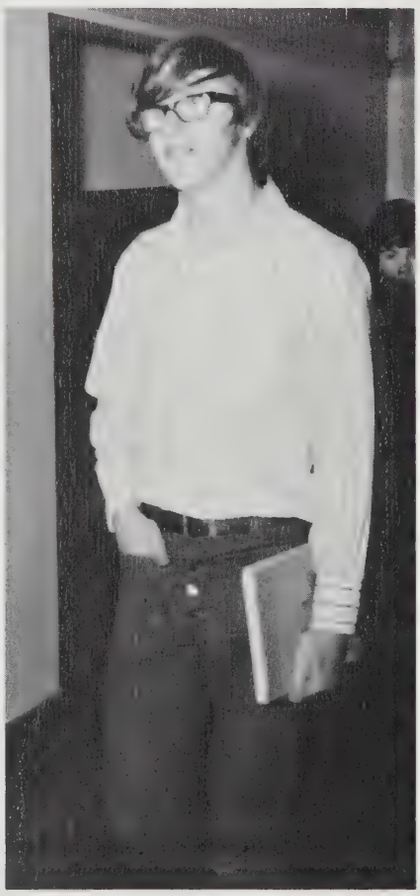
broken belt . . .!!

off the top of my head



what do you mean he saw me . . .??

hi mom, guess what . . .??



and so my dear friends and fellow colleagues, i will leave you with but one word . . . water . . .

one answer to the dropout problem

a good teacher . . .

. . . with a lesson plan . . .

. . . who knows how to make a class interesting and hold a young man's attention she doesn't turn me on

i'm paying attention

i would like to enroll in this class

class history

on the day we entered chls as freshmen, we didn't really know what to expect. sure, we were given a calmative talk and a map to help us find our way, but they didn't help. more than once, we were led astray by the "overly helpful" upperclassmen, who were more than glad to point us in the wrong direction, to wrong locker rooms and classes.

later in the fall, many freshman girls joined the g.a.a. and put on quite a show for the rest of the school, because of the initiation requirements.

thanksgiving day, a fantastic game with rindge ended in a tie of 0-0. the basketball team as well as swim team, which captured the eastern massachusetts title, also brought victory to chls.

during our first year, news of the deaths of miss m. o'connor, miss k. cornell, and mr. t. romeo reached us.

in january, the afro-american club staged a sit-in outside of mr. d'arcy's office, which brought fruitful results.

in february, after five months of work, we had nearly a month's vacation, because of really huge snow storms.

the class of 72's second year at cambridge latin was definitely one to remember. on october 15 the students at latin joined with the rest of the nation in a peaceful and responsible demonstration protesting the involvement of the united states in vietnam.

the football team ended their 5-4 season with a spectacular 30-6 victory over rindge.

our basketball team finished as champs of the suburban league with a superb 20-0 record and easily qualified for the tech tourney.

the snowy and windy weather brought with it a burst of bomb-scares making the frosted students retreat to the rindge auditorium.

along with the winter weather came the ending of the dress code; girls could wear the pants and guys could let their hair grow.

in early fall of our junior year we ordered our school rings. halloween brought a successful dance at the m.i.t. student center; the first school sponsored dance in about a year. this dance was followed by two other good dances later on in the year (k.b. club and the french club.)

unlike the year before, the basketball team was not able to regain its 20–0 score, although they beat catholic memorial.

junior year, the cafeteria added color to its walls. students painted murals (about 2 dozen) on the walls outside the girls cafeteria.

another student involvement was the production of "funny girl" by the "immediate family".

nearing springtime (during april vacation) trips to france, spain, and italy were offered. many students from latin, as well as other schools went. it was a fantabulous week; freedom, fun and sightseeing.

to wind up the year the boys baseball team and the girls softball team played against one another, final score: boys 25 — girls — 8.

the senior class started off the year with class officer elections.

in the fall, the french club, went on a bus trip to the white mountains. it turned out to be a little longer bus ride than was expected and the rain didn't stop, but it was still fun.

on thanksgiving, the turkey game was cancelled, because of the weather. two days later, the game was won by us.

before christmas, the music department put on a christmas program. "the brattle walk"; they sang christmas carols along massachusetts avenue up to the square and they finished up at brattle square.

in january, at a tuesday night school committee meeting, after hours of heated discussions, a vote was taken, which resulted in the dismissing of mr. frisoli, the superintendent of schools. the conflict did not escape cambridge latin where, on wednesday, confusion and differing opinions composed a very hectic day.

february brought colder weather and the senior class ski-trip (feb. 5-6). the two days composed one weekend filled with fun and good times.

in march the k.b. semi-formal was held at the steven james house. it was a big success and everyone had a great time.

as the year drew to a close, marking the end of four "not too bad" years, the seniors couldn't help but look forward to the prom, to june 5th and to the final goodbyes, with mixed feelings.

when i'm alone,
i hear your voice
comforting me,
i'm not alone anymore.
i've got you
in my heart
and the love i feel
for you,
saves me from the feelings
i don't like,
but own.
having you has changed me,
the way i believe
in people,
the way i believe in you.
sitting next to me,
i can't help smiling
back at you,
and i'm filled with a sudden joy
i've never felt before.
when i'm with you,
i feel like i have everything and anything
i've ever wanted,
all in you.

epilogue

in the 1972 cantab yearbook, we wish to present a picture of our in-school and extra curricular activities which have played an important part in molding us into well rounded individuals. in providing these activities, c.h.l.s. has established the basic learning situations that are so important to our development.

the experiences that have been a part of our lives at c.h.l.s. are the roots from which we will continue to grow and make contributions that will make our school proud of us. we shall remember those years at c.h.l.s.

roslyn avant

this is the end. our book. our high school years. from here, we'll go on to work, to school, to marriage. some of us will spend the rest of our days in cambridge, some will never visit this city again. some of us will remain friends, and others will disappear from our lives.

but, in the years to come, this book will become cambridge high and latin to us. in these pages will live the teachers we had, the staff, the building, the activities we were in. the binding will keep us together.

no matter where we go, or what we do, one thing will remain with us forever: the knowledge that we were cambridge latin's class of '72.

poetry by
francis alcaro

We, the members of the yearbook staff, feel that we must apologize to the many people we have unwillingly wronged through our many misspellings and/or mistakes.

to ann antoizick,
we give you an 'n'.

to joseph divito,
you're a pretty good 'di' but a better 'de'.

to dana defura,
we feel you need the 'i'.

to keith mckoy,
from 'koy' to 'coy'.

to anastasios georgacopoullos,
we can't understand how we ever misspelled your name.
is this right now? anastasios georgacopoulos.

to elia mirella,
or is it mirella elia, — yes, it's mirella elia, we think.

to mr. framondis,
well, it's back to italy for you mr. framondi.

to miss d. shram,
you can put your wedding ring back on mrs. shram.

to mrs. phyllis corbin, you're free again miss corbin.

to miss elaine santos,
give us back that 's' miss santo.

to miss bobbi brennan,
first your picture, not your name,
now your name, not your picture.

to the chess club,
however could we have misnamed the key club.

we pledge mever to nake another mistake.
